Virtual Learning Sessions on Every Weekends

Purpose

Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP), a human excellence study, was developed in the 1970's to identify how people excelled in various fields, such as business, sports and communication. NLP is often described as a set of tools that reveals how the mind functions.

Although we live in a world comprising of amazing technological innovations, yet little is known how human mind works. By training to be an NLP practitioner, participants will gain in depth knowledge about how the mind works.

Often called The Science of Excellence, NLP tools, techniques and frameworks continue to help in communication, applied psychology and human resources development (HRD)

Highlights:

- ✓ You will learn the tools of how to make impact therapy a reality.
- ✓ You will learn and master basic techniques that have made NLP the most sought after training.
- ✓ This is an intensive hands-on learning experience.
- ✓ You will learn in the NLP way- seeing it doing it and having it done.
- ✓ This course will teach you more than the technical jargons of NLP.

How would you stand benefitted from the workshop?

You will learn how to:

- ✓ Build and maintain rapport - the key to successful relationships

- ✓ Effectively use metaphors, as all great communicators do
- ✓ Generate practical, well formed outcomes and how to achieve them
- ✓ Design interventions to move a person or organization from a present state to a desired state
- ✓ Create the right context for successful individuals and organizational change
- ✓ Change unwanted behaviors in positive ways
- ✓ Determine what is important to yourself and others
- ✓ Communicate clearly and effectively
- ✓ Mediate and negotiate more successfully
- ✓ Recognize and use powerful language patterns
- ✓ Develop your behavioural flexibility and creativity
- ✓ Manage your stress and help others to manage theirs

Business Benefits

In as much as most roles are communication-based, developing these skills can significantly improve efficiency, creativity and effective goal setting. NLP is one of the best ways of developing important "key competencies" in today's business, such as unlocking potential, empathizing with customers and creating trust.

Personal Benefits

As NLP increases personal choices, many participants discover they now have a wider range of personal life alternatives than they imagined earlier.

Experience is Learning

NLP is best learnt by practicing it. This workshop offers an exciting and a highly interactive – yet a safe platform. The easy-to-learn modules are divided so participants can quickly learn to implement the NLP techniques and enjoy the accruing benefits.

You will receive a comprehensive reference manual for use during the training. The manual provides NLP techniques, in a step-by-step manner, that you can use with anyone and refer to anytime.

Reflections

Vish has helped many leaders including me in designing, organizing and leading a leadership development program for the Account Managers that made him a life time mentor and coach to many of them.

- Rekha Vijayalakshmi, VP-Head- Global client delivery, banking and capital market at Mphasis

Vish conducts workshops with very strong and concrete examples and uses a framework that is very effective.

- Patrik Parungao, Centre Head, UST Global- Philippines

Coaching is an art that rests on wisdom, humility, empathy, listening and inquisitiveness...qualities that aptly summarise Vish's persona. Vish brings razor sharp focus and radical perspectives to help individuals achieve their true potential.

- Shaakun Khanna, Vice President- Oracle

Vish set a new trend in training and development by coming up with innovative and interesting sessions on training which otherwise used to be boring.

- Premnath Unnikrishnan, Chief Marketing Officer- KFC, Malaysia

Vish has tremendous experience in facing situations and brings out the best in people at the time of crisis.

- Bhaskar Natarajan, PCC, Executive Coach

One of the most Innovative Trainers, Vishwanathan had the courage to experiment with new techniques and tools to make the training more effective and impactful.

- Rajdeep Lalvani, Former Head Capability Development- Times of India Group

I have seen Vish's efforts to develop the people and the business with excellent results.

- Ed Cohen, Authentic Leadership & Mindfulness Coach, Nelson Cohen global Consulting, Seattle, USA

I was really fortunate to Learn NLP and get certified on NLP by the Master of NLP (Vishy). He is one of the Best Corporate Trainers who not only trains you on becoming a better Leader but also stands by to help you face the Obstacles and help you come up the Ladder.
